

CARY HAVER

EDUCATION

- 2009 STATA 10 workshops, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore MD
- 2009 Tetra Tech Project Management Training, Arlington, VA
- 2008 M.P.H., Concentration in Epidemiology, The George Washington University School of Public Health and Health Services, Washington, DC
- 2008 Microsoft Access Courses, The USDA Graduate School, Washington, DC
- 2005 B.A., Biological Sciences, minor in Psychology, University of Delaware, Newark, DE
- 2001 International Studies: Martinique, Department of France

EXPERIENCE AND EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Associate Epidemiologist, Tetra Tech Sciences, Arlington, VA,
May 2008-Present

- Maintain website: www.sciences.com
- Conduct literature searches and reviews
- Research environmental and occupational health issues
- Write reports, generate presentations, perform statistical analyses, edit and prepare deliverables and reports for publication
- Manage and analyze data for epidemiologic studies

Study Volunteer, National Institute of Mental Health, Section on Developmental Genetic Epidemiology, Bethesda, MD, August 2007-December 2007

- Recruited study participants and completed eligibility screenings
- Documented contacts and enter data
- Participated in data QA/QC activities
- Performed other tasks

Graduate Assistant, Society for Public Health Education, Washington, DC,
January-May 2007

- Participated in grant preparation
- Assisted with conference organization, preparation, and evaluations
- Prepared health communication items
- Contributed to the grading and documentation of CHES credits for members
- Provided administrative assistance

Biomedical Research Coordinator, National Disease Research Interchange, Philadelphia, PA,
June 2005-July 2006

- Functioned as liaison for NDRI researchers and eye/tissue/organ sources
- Documented all tissue procurements, placements and shipments in the appropriate logs and databases
- Participated in weekly Procurement Department staff meetings
- Served as Laboratory Manager as needed

Teaching Assistant, University of Delaware, Newark, DE
September 2002-December 2004

- Oversaw introductory level laboratory experiments
- Administered and graded quizzes, written lab reports, and lab final exam
- Proctored exams

Cary Haver (cont.)

- Assisted students with course work
- Supported professors with additional course-related activities

Assistant Scientist Internship, Next Century Inc., Newark, DE

June-August 2004

- Assisted in running and reporting the in-vitro studies, with emphasis on genetic toxicology, skin and eye irritation, food tests and other toxicity screening assays.
- Gained valuable experience regarding GLP, SOP, and with other federal guidelines concerning laboratory practices

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Chapter President, Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, Delta Iota Chapter

December 2003-December 2004

- Liaison for the chapter, the university, and the national organization
- Organized and motivated members, mediated disputes as needed.
- Conducted weekly chapter meetings
- Submitted all reports, completed and on time
- Attended National Convention, District Days, and Emma Coleman Frost Leadership Development Institute

HONOR ORGANIZATION

National Society of Collegiate Scholars—inducted 2003

SKILLS

- Microsoft Office and Power Point
- EndNote
- Dreamweaver
- SPSS, SAS, and STATA
- GIS
- Microsoft Access and Data Management
- Report Writer and Crystal Reports
- Basic Knowledge of French
- Basic Laboratory Experience